The Genovese LCN Family has historically controlled all street fairs, carnivals, and festivals in the NYC area. This control was exercised for years by Salvatore (Skinny Sal) Celenzirino, and was passed to [redacted] upon Sal's death in 1971. [redacted] reports to Peter DeFeo according to [redacted] (1980).

By memo, US Secret Service advised that [redacted] and [redacted] Sica Electric are partners with [redacted] in all street feasts and fairs.

b6
b7C
b7D

An anonymous letter received in 1983 stated that [redacted] report to [redacted] who in turn is responsible to Vincent Gigante.

A second and separate anonymous letter received in August 1985 stated that [redacted]

[redacted] report to [redacted] who reports to Gigante.

It is recommended that a new 183 case be opened and assigned to winter, captioned as above, to investigate and determine the extent of extortionate control of these feasts by the Genovese family.

Subject: ORGANIZED CRIME CONTROL over all STREET FESTIVALS, CARNIVALS in TRI-STATE AREA

Dear [redacted],

For nearly forty years i earned my living by working street festivals in new york city and through out new jersey. We always had to pay a little sweat and money to the mob, this year however, its become impossible. Now they want our blood. The feasts are now under the direct control of [redacted] of Greenwich Village. Hes a Capo in the Mob Family of Vinnie "the Chin" Gigante [redacted] has his two cronies shaking down every vender who works in these street festivals. All feast business in divided into two parts.

First Part Food concessions - controlled by [redacted]

b6
b7C

Second end of business controlled by [redacted] in addition to paying over 75.00 to 100.00 per day in rent we are now taxed an additional 250.00 at the end of each spot for protection. This shake down money goes into the pockets of [redacted] Vinnie "the Chin." I was told by my lawyer friend that this definitely comes under the jurisdiction of the F.B.I. because we are forced to pay wheathe we work in NewxYork, New Jersey and Connecticut. Federal Laws are broken when [redacted] shakes us down across state lines. There must be some way you and your agents can get him for parole violations. [redacted] was in Danbury Prison a short while back and should be sent back to jail.

[redacted] are both millionaires and file false tax returns. They both look like poor bums but in reality are vast land owners. [redacted] has two brothers [redacted] Together they have all Long Island locked up. Another cronie of [redacted] is a man called [redacted] Casa Rosa Italian Restaurant on Court and Carroll Streets in Brooklyn. Each morning they meet here to talk about the [redacted] money they earned through the [redacted] [redacted] All razzals and gambling in the feasts are controlled by [redacted] b6 b7C in the streets. Right now they are working on Germaine Street under the banner of Our Lady of Pompeii Church in Manhattan. They have razzle and con games in the streets. They even control the gambling in the Church..(question Fr. [redacted])

They are also working on 17th Avenue in Brooklyn in August they work 20th Avenue in Brooklyn and then over the Labor Day week end the famous Gambino - [redacted] on 18th Avenue in Brooklyn. [redacted] sets all games up in these feasts... The Razzals using ping pong balls or clothes pins, the pool games and the rings with the coke bottles. [redacted] also has what they call the "Block Games" this is where an unsuspecting public citizen tries to throw a wooden circle around a piece of wood that has a 100, $ $50.00 or 20.00 bill wrapped around it. This money game is in the streets. When they work in the streets in Astoria Queens or Brooklyn or the 6th Pct in Greenwich Village, or the Bronx cops do get paid off. It all seems too far fetched b6 b7C to be true.....but it is. My lawyer friend says this mob controlled enterprise is too big to break, but I believe when parasites like [redacted] [redacted] in the picture those of us on the inside looking out say to ourselves....what's taking the authorities so long? [redacted] operates a small candy apple stand in all feasts with [redacted] as front to the mob's extortion racket.

Drained Out.

Sirs:

I have earned a living working the Feasts in all five new york city boro's Nassau and suffolk county. This year things are different. The Mob has come down hard on us. All the vendors bitching that the west side gang is strangling us. The word on the street is that a man by the name of [REDACTED] is controlling the feasts for Chin Gigante. We have to pay a rent to the sponser plus electric bill our stock, now the Mob collects 250.00 to $300.00 after each feast as shakedown money - they call it privilege for being allowwed to work the streets. Sometimes there are fifty or sixty vendors in each feast, multiply that by $300.00 for each of us times twenty five or thirty feasts a year and your talking about a lot of cash for

On December 3, 1985, [REDACTED] furnished the following information to SA [REDACTED]

Source reported that all "street gambling" or razzle games operated in New York City are controlled by the LCN. Many of these games are arranged through [REDACTED] of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, who is affiliated with but independent of, carnival shows operating throughout the United States. Source stated that [REDACTED] as well as other razzle game operators, are required to pay fifty percent of their take to [REDACTED] who pays half of this sum to [REDACTED] (phonetic). [REDACTED] work for an individual named [REDACTED] who is an associate of "CHIN" GIGANTE. Source stated that both [REDACTED] and GIGANTE are associated with the GENOVESE LCN family in New York. Source stated that razzle games, which are commonly operated in conjunction with carnivals, must payoff to organized crime figures where ever they are operated. [REDACTED] must be paid to operate a razzle game in any of New York City's street feasts, one of which is operated annually by [REDACTED] partner [REDACTED] a white male about 45 to 50 years old. To operate a razzle game in other locations in New York City, razzle operators must pay either [REDACTED] (phonetic), a bag man who picks up for [REDACTED]

Mr. Rudolph Giuliani
United States Attorney
Southern District

Dear Mr. Giuliani:

Recent accounts in the newspapers and television on organized crime convictions, has been very encouraging on those of us who have been stung by the viciousness and coldbloodedness of these parasites.

The conviction of Anthony "Fat Tony" Salerno has been long over due. Law enforcement officials such as yourself, as well as those of us who make a living in the streets have known for some time that the true boss of the Genevese crime family is Vincent "The Chin" Gigante.

I can only tell you how astounded I was when reading the Sunday morning daily news I came across an article "vincent Gigante" crazy like a fox. Every word in that article is true, especially for those of us who know him. This ruthless coniving son of a bitch thinks he is Veto Genevese. He tries to pattern his life in the foot steps of some ~~10/1/1~~ of the most notorious mafiosi ever to walk the streets of New York. Here is a man who pretends that he's sick, his heart hurts, his head hurts, his ass hurts, anyone who can order the death of scores of men and can sanction the sale of narcotics or who can order bodily injury on those poor suckers who can't come up with the vig has to have something wrong with him. Since Frank "Funzi" Tieri died the Chin consolidated all his power and is now the strongest mafia boss in the United States. You and your crew went after the heads of the other families with great success. A lot of us of Italian decent are grateful to you and to the U.S. Govt. for taking some of these roaches off the streets. Your job is not done though,. I know the chin, I play cards with him, I eat with him, I accompany him to his hair cuts and I swear to you that he's a sick man, and deserves to be taken care of, in confinement and some secret military hospital on a secret military base. For the hell that he's put countless people through he deserves to spend the rest of his earthly life in solitary confinement along with his trusted underboss [redacted] and his consiglieri [redacted]

b7c

Alot of us on the street believe that it was really a mission impossible for a young Italian U.S. Attorney to take on the mob and win. These old mustache petes always elevated themselves to a level where they can't be touched. The Chin thinks that he mastered this technology, but he the most vulnerable of all. He hides in his club at 208 Sullivan street, or stays at his mommy's house across the the street. When you or the F.B.I. put heat on him or his family he runs up and down Sullivan street with a heavy beard or his baby blue bathrobe. Veto Genevese would never have done this, how could this fag think he's in the shoes of these men. I am sure your spies in the streets have brought back alot of useful information so you could use it on him when its his time to go to trial. You know that Fat Tony Salerno really didn't keep all the money from the concrete business, he has to share it with his boss Vinny "Chin" Gigante. The money that this family made on the Javits convention center, world trade center, and all new construction is just a fraction of what they made from prostitution, and the control sale from narcotics. The Chin and his consiglieri [redacted] [redacted] honestly believe that every inch of N.Y.C. and the surrrounding boroughs belong to them. A good friend of mine had a spot in the San Gennaro feast on Mulberry street for many years. This guy would take his wagon and sell his food an all feasts but because he complained to one of [redacted] underlings that the kick back money is increasing too much from season to season, [redacted] ordered his underling [redacted] to throw him out of all feasts. After 25 years of working in the streets my friend can no longer earn a living. He says he wished he had the nerve to come in and talk to the F.B.I. but he knows that if he did he would be a dead man. [redacted] bragged that he's got stool pigeons in the F.B.I. and on every level of the N.Y.C. police dept. Those of us that want to cooperate with the law can't even trust them/ I think you are about the only one decent Americans can trust. Its a disgrace that every street fair in N.Y.C. even when we travel to New Jersey, CONN. or upstate to Monroe N.Y. we have to pay a tax above the rent to [redacted] There are two people with [redacted] who do the collecting for him. One is [redacted] and the other is .

b6
b7c

[REDACTED] Even the wagons in your front yard belong to

[REDACTED] You can see that if you come out your front door, your back door, or even if you through yourself out the window, no matter which way you turn you find the Chin's family making money and devading taxes on the sidewalks of good old NEW YORK.

b6
b7C

JFW:kgs

On August 30, 1988, [redacted] advised Special Agent [redacted] as follows:

b6
b7C
b7D

ALPHONE VITALE, or "Funzi," is currently the President of the San Gennaro Association, which conducts the annual San Gennaro Festival in Little Italy in September.

"Funzi" is the owner of VITALE's FUNERAL HOME, 33 Spring Street, New York City. His family has been in the funeral business for years.

Source's friend got a sausage stand at the San Gennaro feast a year ago, and he had to pay $1,300.00 to the organization for the stand, plus $2,500.00 in an envelope "for the boys." Last year this friend talked to [redacted] about the cost of a stand, [redacted] said the envelope would never go higher.

Source advised each block of the feast has a block captain, a type of "spotter," who oversees things, works out problems, et cetera. These would be lower level guys such as [redacted] for example. They particularly keep an eye on the food stands.

b7C

A guy named [redacted] used to be in charge of the feast. He was associated with [redacted] PASTRIES, which has a GENOVESE family connection. There will be several [redacted] pastry stands at the feast.

The electrical work for the feast will probably be done by a place called MIGLIACCIO, located on the east side, either Spring or Prince Street.

b6
b7C

In general, people go to either [redacted] "Baldy Dom" CANTERINO for problems regarding the Saint Anthony's Feast, and that may be true of the San Gennaro as well.

Out of the San Gennaro feast proceeds, source states the largest percentage goes to VINCENT "Chin" GIGANTE, and also a large chunk goes to JOHN GOTTI. The block captains also get a cut.

On October 1, 1988 [] advised S.A. [] of the following:

[] used to run all the feasts, including []. He was heavily involved in drugs also. He became too greedy, and "CHIN" GIGANTE made him get out of the neighborhood. He currently lives in FLORIDA, where he has been for a few years, and is involved in the medical equipment business. He may be in the MIAMI area. He would now be in his early to "mid-fifties. He is still a drug-user, particularly free-basing. He is a very good-looking guy, and always has several women around. At one time he was involved sexually with a 12 year old girl, who was living with him. A woman from the [] still goes down to see him on occasion. [] is also involved with FRANKIE "CONDO." she lives in the area of [] ("CONDO" lives across the street.

GREGORY DECURTIS was killed because he was shooting his month off that he worked for JOHN GOTTI, not because of the fight he had with ROCCO ARENA.

About six months ago (approximately March, 1988) ROCCO went to Sullivan Street to CHIN, to ask for the hit. DECURTIS was found on Bleecker Street, in front of Grandpa's Restaurant. The perpetrators got away on motorcycles. ROCCO was standing in front of ZITO'S BREAD store and saw what happened. ROCCO is about age 31. He is coming up very fast, and may be the one who did the hit on CARL BENDETTI. He (ROCCO) used to run HEARTBREAK'S DISCO. He currently runs card games on Bedford St.

A woman named [] is involved with [] [] a Jewish guy about 65-70 years old, who has had several heart attacks. He is a numbers man and shylock collector, and works for [] is considered a stand-up guy, and once did some time for []

There may be problems regarding [] now running [] territory. [] is a violent type and very impulsive. There is a considerable amount of "bad blood" between [] and guys in the neighborhood, regarding old scores.

The St. Anthony's Feast will be running this year June 3, 1989 through June 13, 1989. The lights were put up very early this time. "CHIN" will have his usual seafood stand on the northwest corner of Houston and Sullivan. He likes to make a showing there.

[] is more and more disgusted at the greediness in the feasts. Source believes he might talk if approached but he is greatly afraid of []

GENOVESE LA COSA NOSTRA
CONTROL OF STREET FAIRS AND FEASTS
RACKETEER INFLUENCED AND CORRUPT ORGANIZATIONS

The GENOVESE LA COSA NOSTRA (LCN) FAMILY has historically controlled street fairs, carnivals and festivals in the New York area. This control was exercised for years by SALVATORE (Skinny Sal) CELAMBRINO and was passed to [redacted] when SAL died in 1971.

The instant case was opened in August, 1985 upon receipt of an anonymous letter to the United States Attorney's Office, Eastern District of New York (EDNY). The letter outlined in knowledgeable detail the GENOVESE control of street fairs, including the roles of GENOVESE boss VINCENT "Chin" GIGANTE and underboss [redacted]

b6
b7C

Subsequently, more anonymous letters were received further elucidating the above, plus confidential source information was gathered from several areas which substantiated the allegation.

Though it was felt that the case represented fertile territory for potential Group II Undercover Activity, and the various anonymous letters appeared to be from knowledgeable individuals with accurate information, no witnesses actually came forward, and C-6 Squad did not have the personnel or time available to pursue the matter. Accordingly, in 1987 the case was closed.

In September, 1988, the case was re-opened due to the assigned Case Agent having a confidential source providing some information on the feasts, particularly the annual San Genarro Feast, held every September. The San Genarro is the largest of the New York street Fairs, and the most lucrative and heavily controlled by the LCN.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

BENOVESE LA COSA NOSTRA

In August, 1988, plans were laid for a Group II Undercover project involving the San Genarro Feast. Subsequently, however, the project was aborted since security problems could not be overcome.

Since the September San Genarro Feast would be the one most suitable to penetration by law enforcement due to its large size and lesser scrutiny of vendors, NYO is closing this case at this time, with the possibility of a re-opening at the appropriate time.

FRANKIE CONDO (California Frank) was seen going by the cafe at 142 Sullivan Street. He had new false teeth and looked funny. ROCCO ARENA's friend [] is working in the cafe and was seen being pulled aside by FRANKIE to discuss something quietly. This used to be called JOE MUTT'S PLACE.

[] refuses to work the San Genarro feast anymore, because the "envelope" has gotten so high. Source heard it is $5,000 per booth this year for a food stand.

[] was always crazy, walking around openly with guns, hatchets, etc. "Chin" GIGANTE has given him carte blanche in the neighborhood. His drug habit is well known. He had an amphetamine warehouse in New Jersey once with ANTHONY RUSSO.
